

FOCAL (Friends of Children and Literature)

Essay Contest

for Students in Grades 3-8

The FOCAL Award is presented annually to an author for a creative work that enriches a child's appreciation for and understanding of California.

This year the 2018 award goes to—

Step up to the plate, Maria Singh

(New York: Tu Books, 2017)

by Uma Krishnaswami (call number: X)

Three essay winners will be invited to the FOCAL Award Luncheon on December 8, 2018 and receive a copy of the autographed award winning book and meet the author. Their teacher and a parent will also receive a complimentary ticket to the award luncheon where the winners will read their essays.

To enter the Essay Contest:

Read the book, available at your school library or nearby Los Angeles Public Library branch library.

Compose an essay of no more than 300 words using three separate paragraphs explaining:

1. Your reactions to the book as a whole.
2. Your thoughts about a character or scene that stuck with you.
3. What it would mean for you to meet the author.

Type the essay on white paper, 8 1/2" x 11" using 12 point font.

- No title is required.
- Check spelling, punctuation, and grammar carefully. Mistakes will disqualify the entry.
- Attach the completed Contest Entry Form (below and on our website) to the essay.

Online option: Use the link provided. Complete the contest entry information and submit the essay following the instructions given above.

Individual students may each submit their own entry.

Only one entry per student is allowed.

Teachers may select the 3 most original entries per classroom to submit.

Each essay entry must be sent with the completed Contest Entry Form (below).
